

Open webinar: EU Directive non-financial information disclosure platform update

September 14 (11:00-12:00 CET)

The EU Non-financial Reporting Directive Platform, organised jointly by GRI and CSR Europe, is an informal platform for discussion aiming to allow businesses and civil society to come together and share information in order to support an effective implementation of the EU Directive on non- financial reporting.

This webinar will provide an update on the platform, focusing on identified good practices and current status across Member States.

Join this webinar, in order to:

- ✓ Get an update on what is happening in different countries with respect to the transposition of the EU directive on
- ✓ Learn about some countries good practices and activities to support the process and implementation of the transposition
- ✓ Participate in an open debate on the directive

Please note that this is an open webinar. It is recommended for companies, NGOs, CSR Europe's National Partner Organisations and the public.
