

Business & Human Rights introduction webinar

When: 27th of June 2018 (11:00-13:00 CEST)

Building on our business & human rights work and the launched blueprint for embedding human rights, CSR Europe's aim to build capacity in companies' responsibility to respect human rights at the local level. After the success last Business and Human rights Training editions, where over 70 companies participated across Europe, CSR Europe is organising a third round.

This Train the Trainer webinar aims to:

- ✓ Explain CSR Europe's model for trainings on business & human rights
- ✓ Prepare NPOs to deliver these human rights trainings
- ✓ Kick-off human rights training local workshops around Europe

In addition, as part of a training package created for NPOs, in preparation for the train the trainer webinar, CSR Europe will disseminate, to the NPOs registered, a supporting document to ensure a good level of understanding of human rights in business and the implications for companies (international standards, companies standards, practices).
